Description	Image	My notes
1 In Ezekiel's vision the 'man' led him through the north gate out into the outer courtyard.
2 Here were buildings with many rooms where the priests would eat the most holy offerings (v13).
3 The building whose door faced north was 100 cubits long and the building opposite it was 50 cubits in length.

- 4 The rooms were in three tiers, overlooking the outer court on one side.

- 5 In front of the rooms was an inner passageway ten cubits wide and a hundred cubits long.

- 6 The upper two tiers of rooms were not as wide as the lower one, because the upper tiers had wider walkways beside them.

- 7 There was a wall, 50 cubits long, that was parallel to the rooms and ran along the outer courtyard. The row of rooms that ran along the outer courtyard was also 50 cubits long.

- 8 On the south side, by the restricted area, there were buildings like those on the north side.

- 9 When the man had finished measuring inside the Temple area he brought Ezekiel out through the East gate and measured all around that area.

Ezekiel 42:15

- 10 It was 500 reeds square (KJV - note modern translations have this at 500 cubits). The surrounding wall separated the holy from the outside areas.

Ezekiel 42:15-20

- 11 Note: These images are artistic representations of Ezekiel's vision based on the Biblical account, created from a 3D rendered model by Biblia Prints. There is debate over the exact length of a long cubit (a cubit and a handwidth) in Ezekiel's vision.
